Anna Smerdova is a thirteen-year-old Czech pianist with notable international recognition. She studies at the Tiziano Rossetti International Music Academy under Professor Maria Narodytska and has won over 25 first prizes in 13 countries. In 2025, she became the Grand Prize Winner at the Concert Artists International Competition, performing at Carnegie Hall in New York. Anna's achievements include top prizes at prestigious competitions such as WPTA Italy IPC, WPTA Finland, WPTA Austria, WPTA Spain, Globe International Piano Competition (Netherlands), Wiener Klassik (Austria), Music Singapore International Competition, Golden Piano Talents (North Macedonia), Artepiano IPC (Italy), Global Philharmonic (USA), Franz Liszt Center IPC (Spain), Malta International Piano Competition, OPUS (Poland), etc. A 2023 MenART scholarship recipient, Anna studied with Professor Ivo Kahánek and performed at the Prague Spring Festival 2024. Anna regularly appears at prestigious venues across Europe.

For more updates, videos, and performances, please visit Anna's official social media channels:

Website: Anna Smerdova Pianist
YouTube: Anna Smerdova
Facebook: Anna Smerdova Pianist

Programme

J. S. Bach: Fantasia & Fugue in C minor, BWV 906; Fantasia

F. Liszt: Paganini Etude No. 2

S. Rachmaninoff: Moments Musicaux, Op. 16 No. 4 in E minor

F. Chopin: Fantaisie-Impromptu in C-sharp minor, Op. 66

F. Mendelssohn: Rondo Capriccioso, Op. 14