

Martin Dodevski was born in 1990 in Kočani, North Macedonia. From a young age, he showed a natural affinity for rhythm, picking up the drums as a child and quickly developing a deep passion for music. His dedication led him to pursue formal studies at the Faculty of Music Arts "Goce Delčev" in Štip, where he graduated in jazz drums under the mentorship of renowned professor Alek Sekulovski.

Over the years, Martin has established himself as a versatile and dynamic drummer, collaborating with numerous jazz ensembles across Macedonia and Europe. His style blends technical precision with expressive improvisation, making him a sought-after performer in the jazz scene.

Currently, Martin is preparing for an exciting European tour with his jazz ensemble, continuing to share his love for music with audiences across the continent.
