

Andriana Yordanova, established soprano and voice teacher holds a Masters in Opera singing and Vocal pedagogy and a Ph.D. in Music as well as a Master degree in Russian language and literature. She won scholarships for European Opera Trust in England, Academy "Boris Christoff" in Rome and bursaries from "Kraft Jacobs Suchard". She is a winner of competitions, a member of international judging boards, visiting lecturer at the University of Malta and acts as independent evaluator of National Qualifications which are being accredited against the MQF.

Her repertoire ranges from Italian, French, German and Russian operas to operettas, Baroque and Sacred music, Lieder and modern composers. Her career brought her from Bulgaria to Egypt, Greece, Germany, Switzerland, Russia, Italy, Austria, Russia, Kazakhstan, Hungary, UK. Since 2001 she made Malta her second home. She is passionate about the Maltese-Bulgarian relationships in Culture and Music, work with young and upcoming opera singers and promotion of Maltese classical vocal music.

Recently she was nominated for the most prestigious Bulgarian award in Music for achievement in 2019 Crystal Lyre. Currently she is teaching voice technique at Johann Strauss Malta School of Music at Mikiel Anton Vassalli College.