

Swetlana Reder, M.A.

Piano Teacher • Concertmaster • Founder of Music Academy Malta

Swetlana Reder is a highly experienced piano teacher and concertmaster, active since 1989. She holds a diploma from the Music High School of Tchernigov (Ukraine) and a Masters degree in Cultural Studies from the University of Munich (Germany). In addition to her musical career, she is a certified Life Coach (EAIC) and published author. As the founder and head of Music Academy Malta, established in 2020, she is passionate about nurturing talent and creating a supportive musical community. Svitlana finds deep inspiration in her students' dedication and progress, which continually motivates her both as an educator and as a person.